The petitioner during course of argument submits that the Hon'ble Supreme Court had granted a relief in favour of the respondent (who is the petitioner before the Supreme Court of India) by staying the arrest, pending decisions of the appropriate courts. He submits that he wants to file an appropriate clarification application before the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India seeking clarification/modification of the order dated 06.12.2017 passed in Special Leave Petition (Cri) No. 1809 of 2015 about the word 'appropriate courts' as the Hon'ble Supreme Court has used the word 'courts' and not word 'court'. He submits that he may be given liberty to approach this Court after seeking modification/clarification of the dated 06.12.2017. He submits that at this stage he wants to withdraw this application with a liberty to approach this Court once he gets an order on the proposed modification/clarification application from the Hon'ble Supreme Court.

Prayer is allowed with the aforesaid liberty.

Accordingly, this application is allowed to be withdrawn.
